

I am writing to protest the Sinclair Broadcast Group's plan to air the program entitled "Stolen Honor." This program amounts to nothing more than a character assassination piece masquerading as a documentary. It is my understanding that a public broadcaster may not air a political piece without giving equal time to both opposing parties, and this broadcast appears to be a violation of that rule.

I feel that the FCC needs to take an active role in disrupting media consolidation, to avoid centralization of viewpoints from any side.

Please either block the Sinclair group from forcing their affiliate stations to run this piece, or make them run a pro-John Kerry story (such as "Up the River") shortly before or after "Stolen Honor."

Best regards
